Table of Contents [Show/Hide] Referring to unique and creative ideas, it is impossible not to mention Voodoo, the famous game publisher with many fun arcade games. Rolly Legs is their newest product on Google Play, a truly remarkable game. Although the game was launched not so long ago, the fun and unique running makes players feel excited. ControlThe common point of Voodoo's game is the minimalist gameplay and simple control. Charismatic, simple, easy is what players rate on this game when they experience. In the light of the slopes, players only need to slide their fingers to curl up the robot like a ball. This will help his movement speed faster to be able to pass in front of the opponent. If you encounter an obstacle, the player simply taps the screen, where the robot's legs appear and jump over. You may not know Draw Climber also has a lot of fun running. Fun runningRolly Legs is not an endless running game like iRunner or Tower Run. Although, the difficulty of this game is more interesting and challenge. The racetracks are sometimes flat, folded, sometimes undulating like the waves, and sometimes players have to cross the sandy and watery roads. Not only that, but the obstacles on the pitch are also very difficult. Players will have to climb walls, break obstacles if you do not want to have an accident. In addition, Rolly Legs is also very competitive. In one race, players will have to confront three other AI opponents to try to be the first to reach the finish line. RewardPlayers can also use parachutes to keep the robot in the air longer, flying longer thanks to the impact of the wind. When the ball is in the air for a certain period of time, it automatically uses force to drive farther and faster. However, this technique is only used once per race. As you progress through multiple levels, new and exciting tracks will be unlocked. You will receive a bonus after each becomes the first finish. The shorter the time it takes to complete the race, the more money the prize will of course receive. Behind the finish line there's a bonus. You can increase your bonus here. Unlock skinsWith the coins, players can use it to collect unique ball skins. The designers have created many new and interesting skins, just like the gameplay in this game. However, players are not allowed to purchase these types of skins directly, but must collect them randomly. The more unique the skins, the more coins you need. Colorful balls, rainbow ball, wheels, aliens, giraffes, camels and many other cute animals. The Rolly Legs races are modeled on vibrant and colorful 3D graphics. The two sides of the trail are designed and added trees, houses, swimming pools, dams, ... to make the race more realistic. The interface is also very simple but harmonious and interacts well with the user. Finally, it's impossible not to mention the music. The ball moves in The opportunity to enjoy a variety of exciting EDM tunes while increasing the excitement when you can enjoy it with gameplay. But... Many people believe that this game is easy to hack and it is really unfair. If you want to overcome obstacles and easily win, the player just needs to speed up and use the parachute to help the ball fly for a long time in the air. This will help bypass the obstacle course. And if the player follows a normal speed and overcomes obstacles, AI is always favored to run faster, even if both have the same actions.
